

UNIVERSITY of MARYLAND
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

You're Rx for Good Health

The University of Maryland School of Medicine's Mini-Med School is a FREE five-week series designed to help Baltimore residents improve their health and wellbeing. Mini-Med School is an exclusive opportunity to learn from University of Maryland physicians and researchers about health issues that are important to everyone!

Join us for this five-week series and earn your Mini-Med School certificate!

WHEN:

Tuesdays,
October 16 - November 13, 2018
6:00-8:00pm
(Doors open at 5:30pm)

WHERE:

SMC Campus Center,
Elm Ballroom
621 W. Lombard Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21201

TO REGISTER: <http://www.medschool.umaryland.edu/minimed/Registration/>
FOR INFORMATION: odawodu@som.umaryland.edu or (410) 706-7518

This year's Mini-Med School will include sessions on the following topics:

| October 16 | October 23 | October 30 | November 6 | November 13 |
|--|--|--|---|---|
| 6:00 pm Hypertension Wallace Johnson, MD Assistant Professor of Medicine | 6:00 pm Emergencies at Home Joseph Martinez, MD Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine | 6:00 pm Nutrition Maureen Black, PhD John A. Scholl, MD and Mary Louise Scholl, MD Professor in Pediatrics | 6:00 pm Opioid Overdose Response Training Andrew Forrest, PharmD Clinical Pharmacy Specialist, University of Maryland Medical Center | 6:00 pm Social Justice Darlene Robinson, MD Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine |
| 7:00 pm Stress Laundette Jones, PhD Assistant Professor of Epidemiology and Public Health Ulysses Archie Community Advocate & Co-Founder Baltimore Gift Economy | 7:00 pm Bleeding Emergencies Habeeba Park, MD Assistant Professor of Surgery | 7:00 pm Exercise Vincent Conroy, PT, DScPT Assistant Professor of Physical Therapy & Rehabilitation Science | 7:00 pm Genomics and Alcohol Dependence Chamindi Seneviratne, MD Assistant Professor of Psychiatry | 7:00 pm Graduation E. Albert Reece, MD, PhD, MBA Executive Vice President for Medical Affairs, UM Baltimore; the John Z. and Akiko K. Bowers Distinguished Professor, and Dean of the School of Medicine |