

Research Seminar Fall 2018

Seminars are held on Thursdays, 12-1pm in the Allied Health Building, 100 Penn Street

Sept. 13	Kathy Cullen, PhD Professor JHU	Neural mechanisms encoding natural self-motion in health & disease
Sept. 20	Barbara Resnick, PhD, RN Professor UMB	Optimizing Function and Physical Activity via Function Focused Care
Sept. 27	Kristan Leech, PT, PhD Postdoctoral Fellow JHU	Creating lasting motor memories during walking
Oct. 4	Brian Johnson, OT PhD candidate PTRS	Acoustic stimulation during sleep to enhance skill performance in older adults with and without stroke
Oct. 11	APTA National Student Conclave	No Seminar
Oct. 18	Mark Wu, MD, PhD Associate Professor JHU	Timing is everything: Circadian clocks in behavior & disease
Oct. 25	Kendra Cherry-Allen, PT, PhD Postdoctoral Fellow JHU	Combining learning mechanisms to improve walking in people with stroke
Nov. 1	ASNR/SFN	No Seminar
Nov. 8	Rachel Reoli, PT PhD student PTRS	Investigation of reaching control with reinforcement vs error based learning for patients with cerebellar ataxia
Nov. 15	Darcy Reisman, PT, PhD Professor University of Delaware	Post-stroke locomotor recovery
Nov. 22	Thanksgiving Holiday	No Seminar
Nov. 29	Raziyeh Baghi, PT, MSc PhD Student PTRS	TBD
Dec. 6	Kelly Rock, PT PhD Student PTRS	Rehabilitation considerations in patients with pediatric cancer